Thank you very much for your interest in our property 'Sa Pedrissa' to celebrate your wedding. We're honoured to offer you our services and facilities on such a special day. Below, you'll find all the details regarding the types of our rooms and suites, the areas available for the event, and a brief history of Sa Pedrissa.

01. A brief history of Sa Pedrissa

Agrotourism Sa Pedrissa is an old farmhouse dating back to the end of the 16th century.

Originally, it was dedicated to the cultivation of olive groves and the production of olive oil. You can still observe the original olive mill in our restaurant, which remained in operation until the middle of the last century.

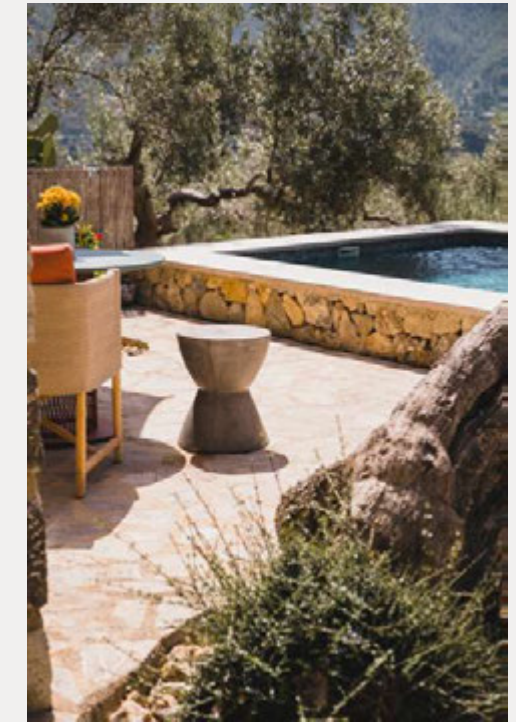

In 1996, the Artigues-Morey family transformed the house into a charming, small rural hotel with a total of 14 rooms.

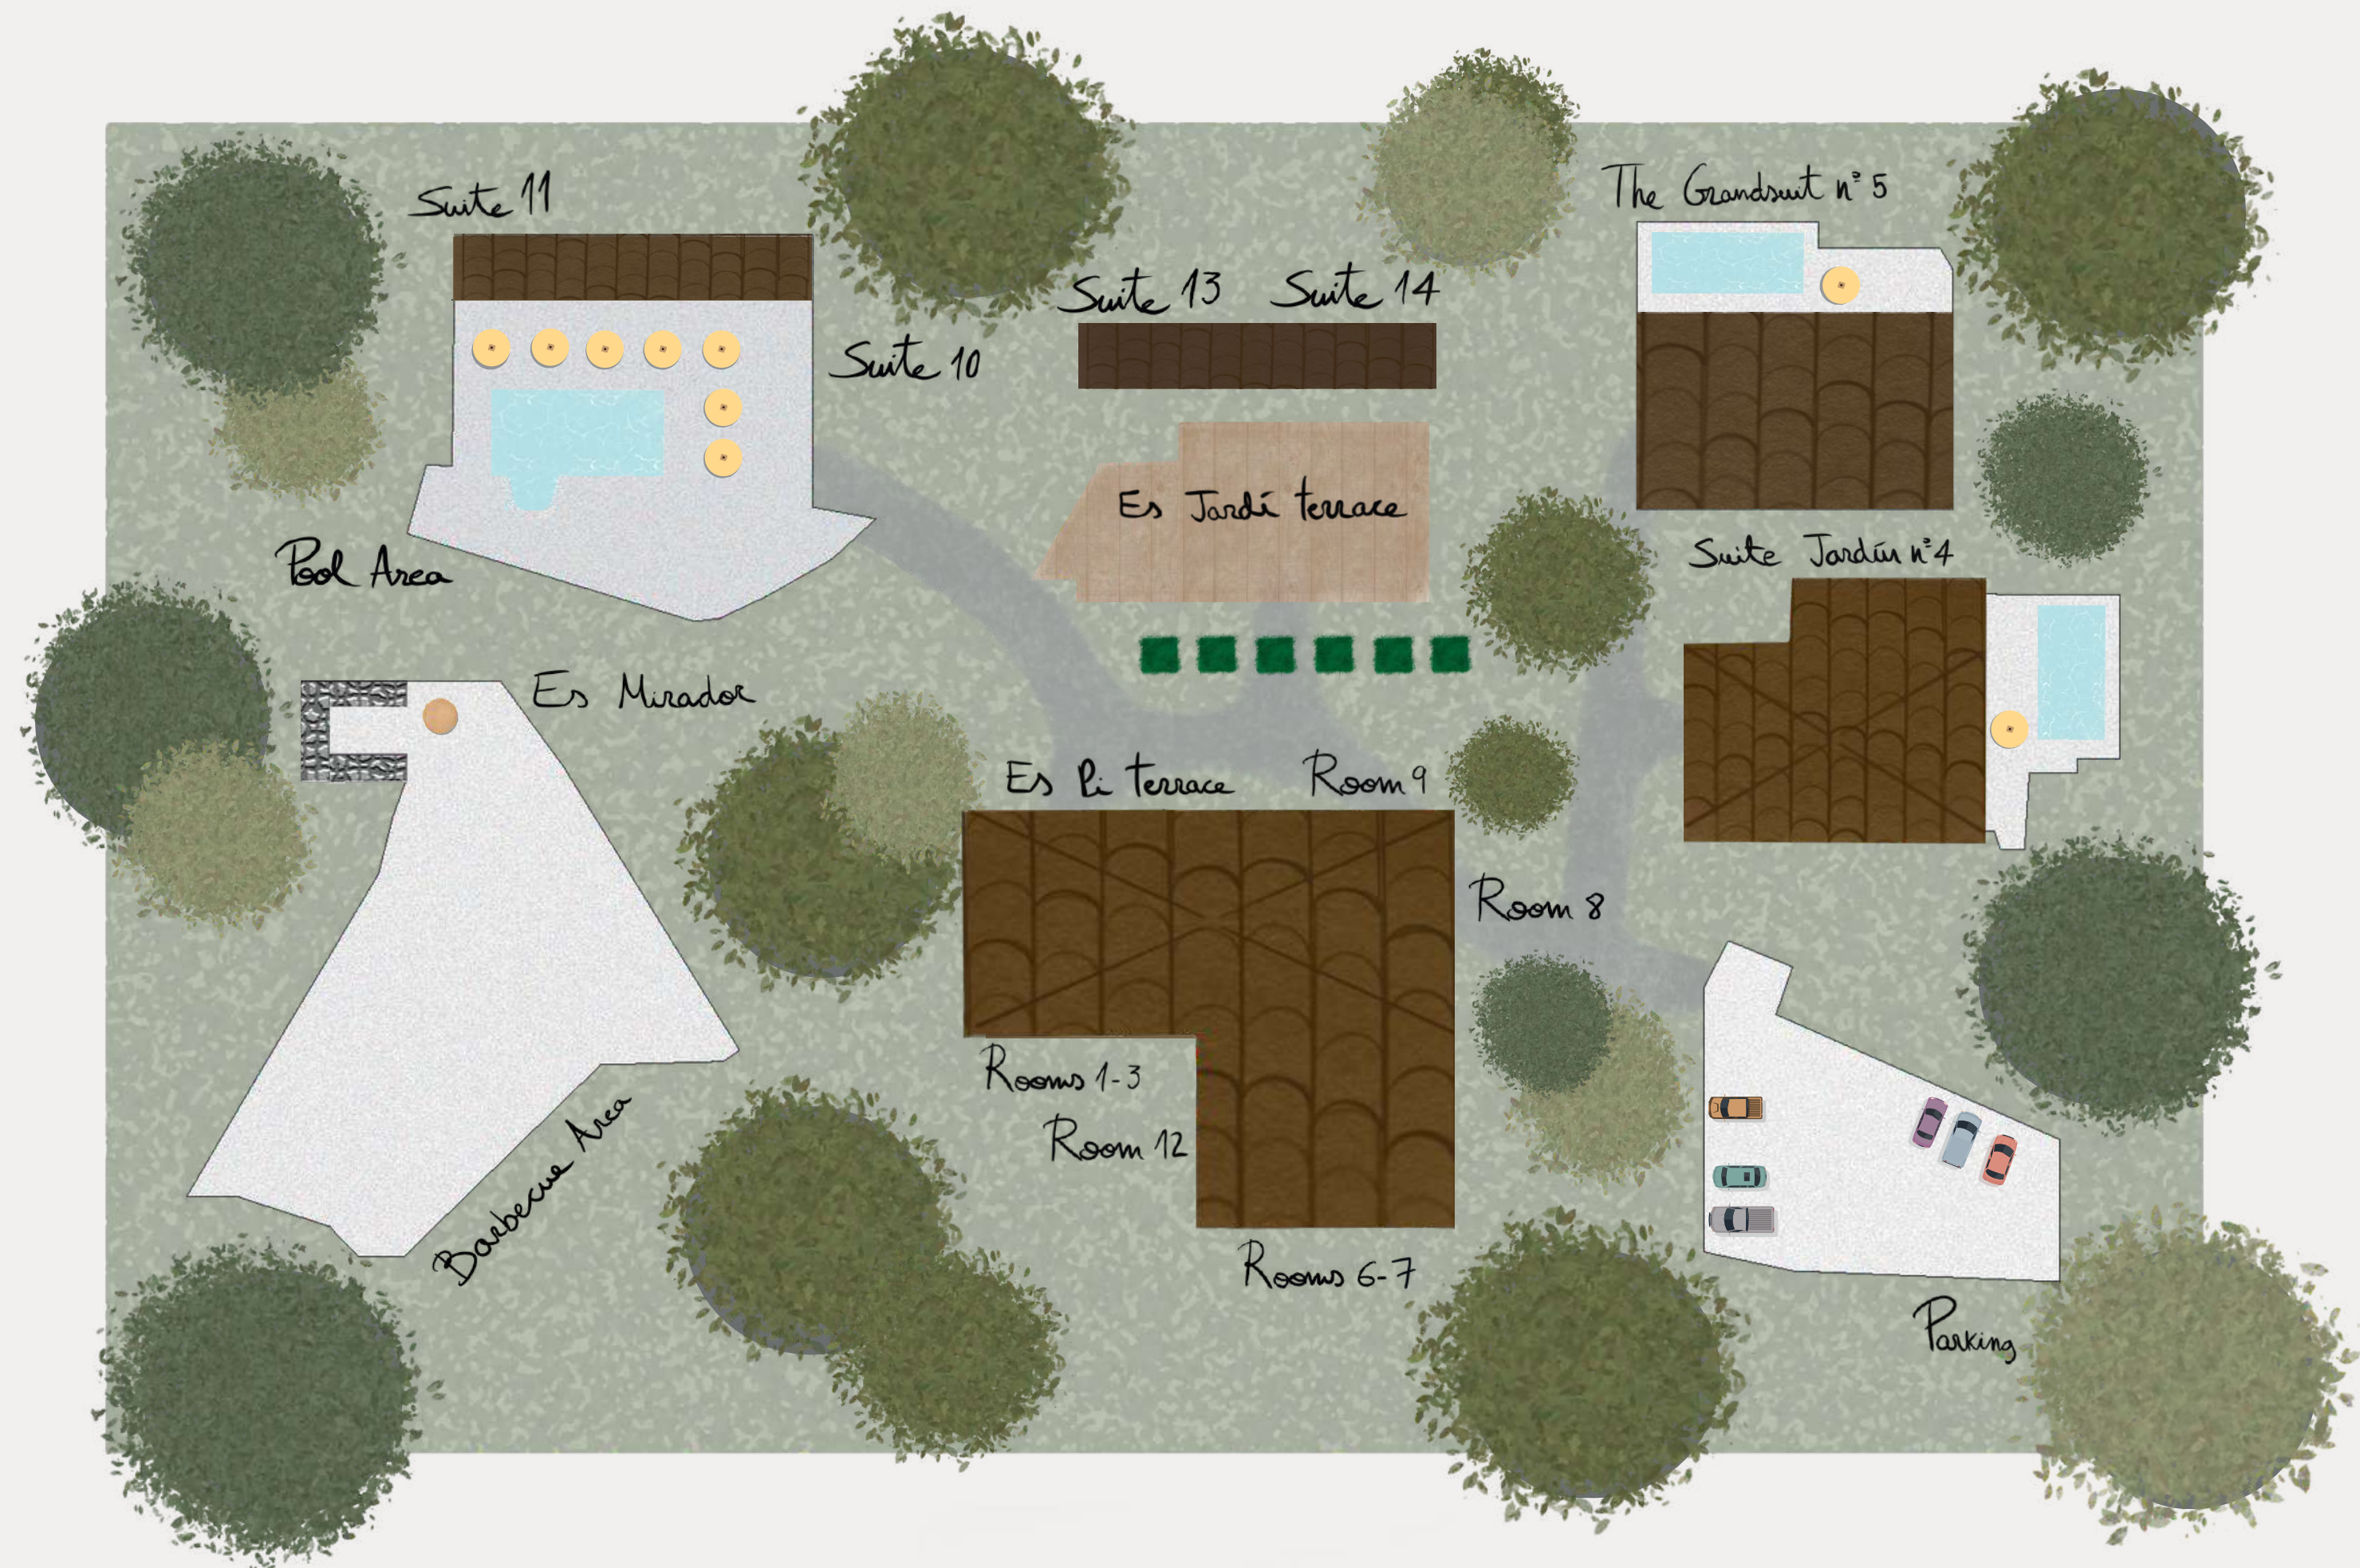

The restaurant, Es Pi, is currently led by Chef Marcel Ress.

03. Restaurant Es Pi

by Marcel Röss

Es Pi is a restaurant where local and seasonal products take center stage in a diverse menu crafted by our gastronomic advisor, Marcel Ress, the Top Chef of Spain in 2015.

The island, its roots, and its traditions serve as the foundation for a culinary journey that evolves daily, offering a contemporary interpretation of traditional Majorcan cuisine.

As a result, at Es Pi, we provide a complete gastronomic experience in the purest Mediterranean style, set within an exceptional environment.
